

6516205753.txt

I support XM radios traffic and weather service. As long as they are providing this service on a nationwide basis (not targetted at a local area using spot beam or repeater technology), they should be considered within the confines of their charter. Vote NO to HR4026